

Spring is well under way, but the weather isn't looking too warm this week, so let's try some online learning.

Explore a famous "Spring" piece of music by Antonio Vivaldi!

-Go to www.classicsforkids.com and click on the links below Antonio Vivaldi's picture to learn more.

Visit this website: www.creatingmusic.com You have 3 options to explore:

- 1) Playing with music- You get to create your own simple melodies.
- 2) Hearing Music- Test your listening skills.
- 3) About Pitch- Every elementary student can use extra reinforcement on the concept of pitch; listen to the different pitch examples.

As always, please share your adventures with me at bsmucker@wlstigers.org.

Happy Music Making! ~Mrs. Smucker
